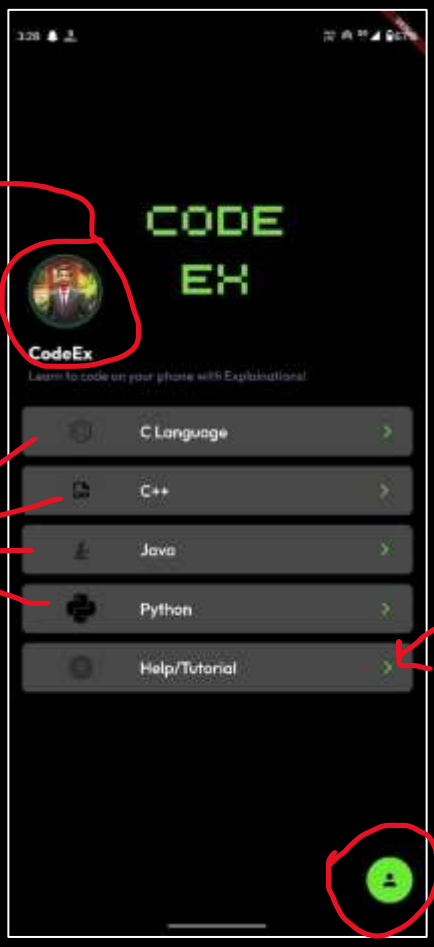
Tutorial on how to use CodeEx

1. Home / Main Screen:



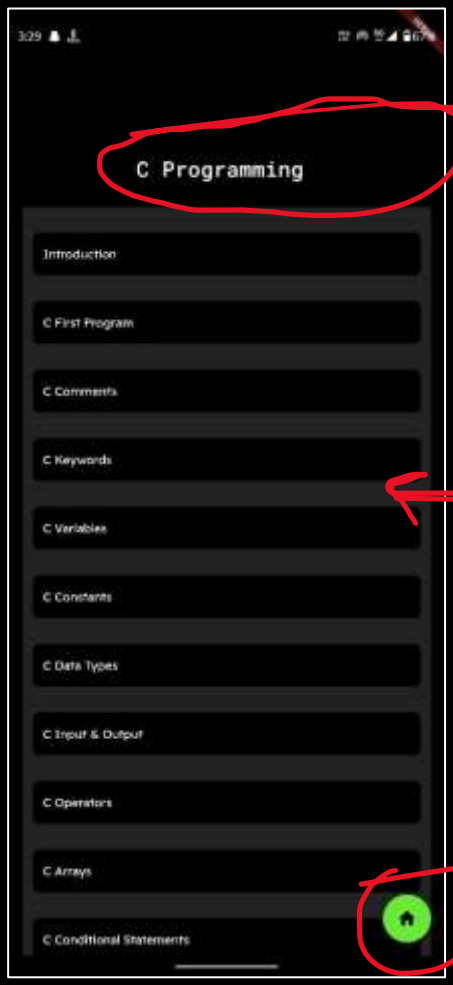
This is Your profile photo that is associated with the google account you used for Signing in the application. Clicking here would send you to the profile page.

These are the available languages that can be learnt in this app click on any one language at a time to start learning.

This is the Help Section. Clicking here would take you to the About app Section where you can either check this tutorial, send me the feedback or report bugs, See the App Changelogs or See information about me.

This is the Profile Floating Action Button that will take you to your profile.

2. Learning Module:



After clicking any Language Module on home Screen, you will be brought on this Screen Where it will display the Index of Topics in the Language to learn. Click on topic in a top to bottom manner to learn properly then you will be taken to the topic page.

These are the topics in the language to learn Click on them to continue.

FAB to navigate to Home Screen

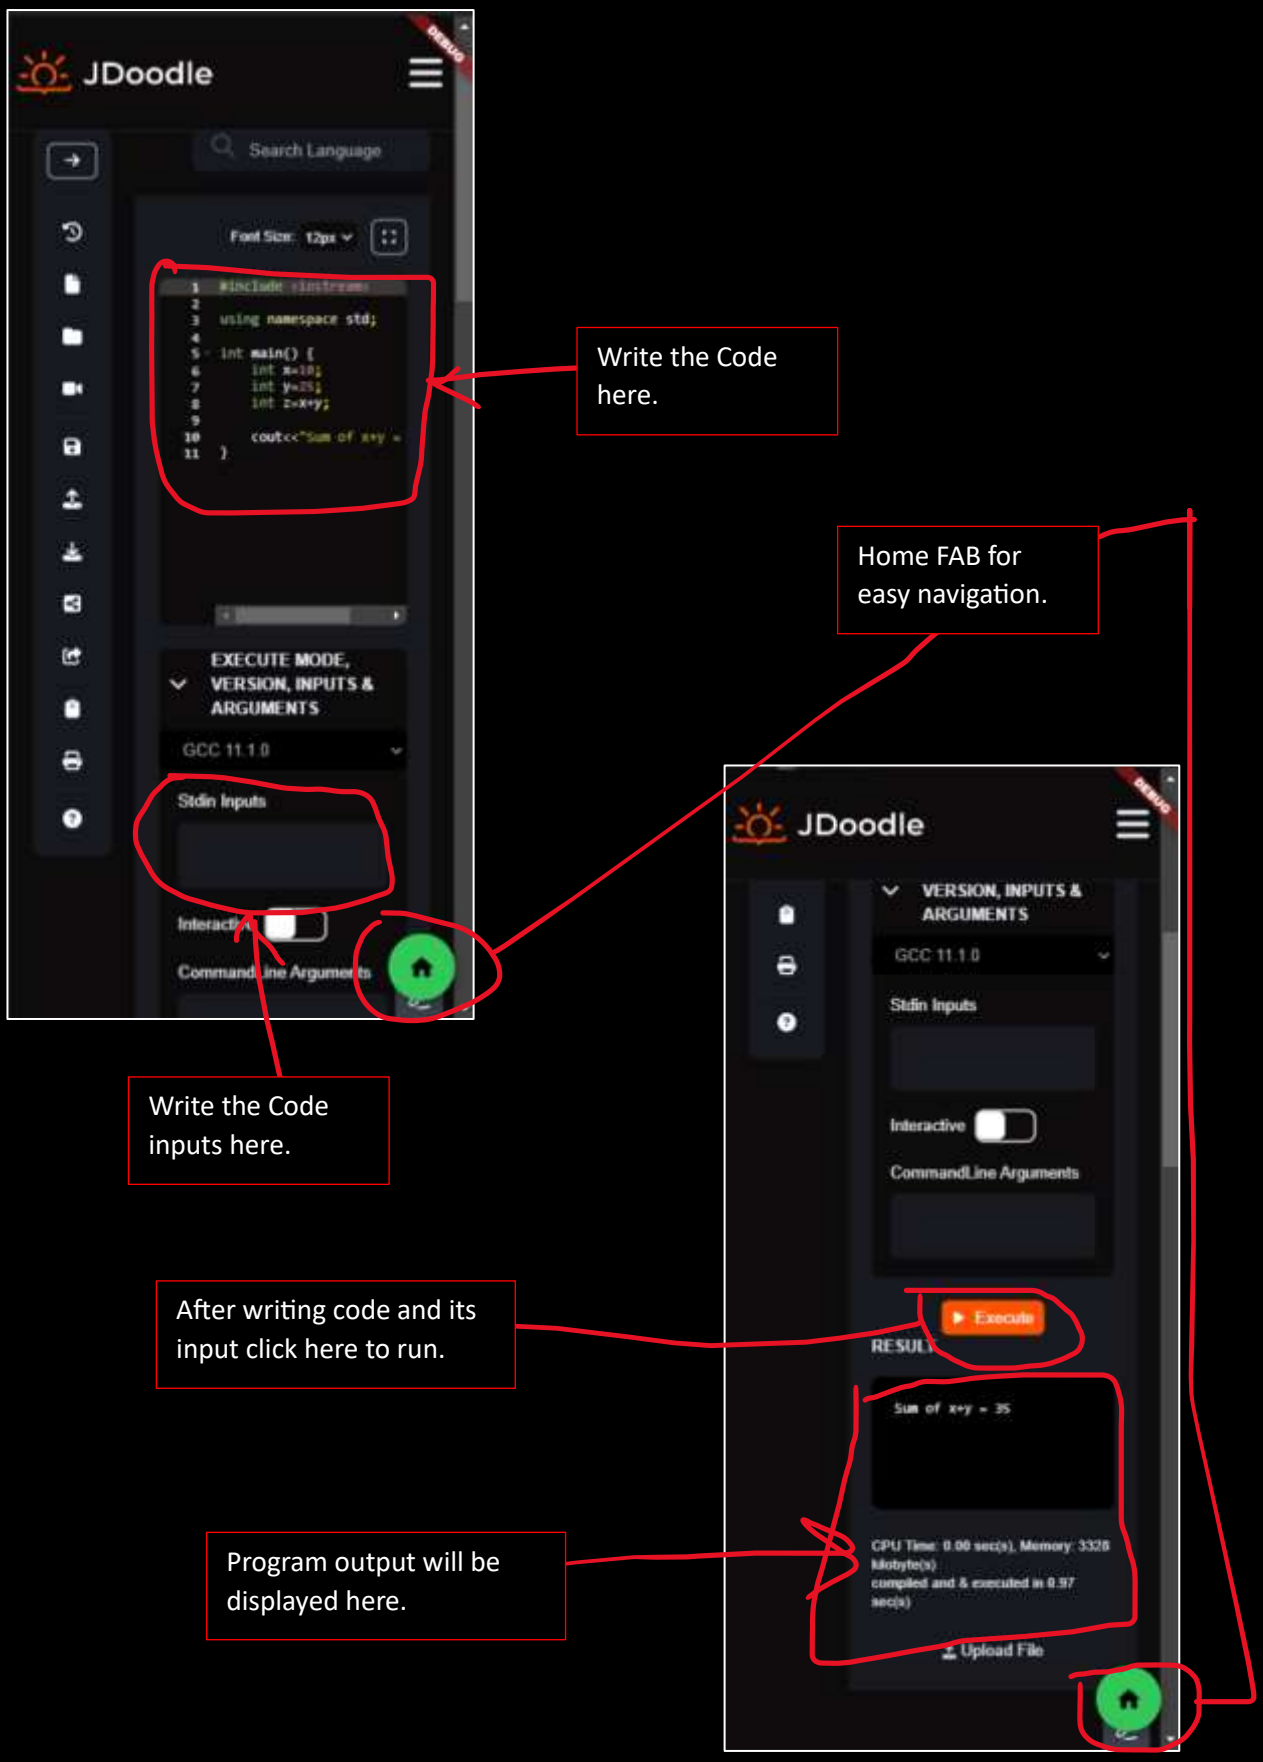
Topic Name

Description of the Topic with examples and Exercises to read and understand.

After understanding the topic click on this button to try the learnt topic on our online terminal for free.

Previous and Next Navigation buttons to surf between the Topics

3. IDE:



JDoodle
Search Language
Font Size: 12px
EXECUTE MODE, VERSION, INPUTS & ARGUMENTS
GCC 11.1.0
Stdin Inputs
Interactive
CommandLine Arguments
Write the Code here.
Home FAB for easy navigation.
Write the Code inputs here.
After writing code and its input click here to run.
Program output will be displayed here.
VERSION, INPUTS & ARGUMENTS
Execute
Sum of x+y = 35
Upload File